WHERE THE CANOPY RUNS OUT

Council-tree shade standing in each block, for the year picked (2025 when none is). Each tree is gone by the top of its useful life band.

Year

2025

Shade per m² of block, year picked

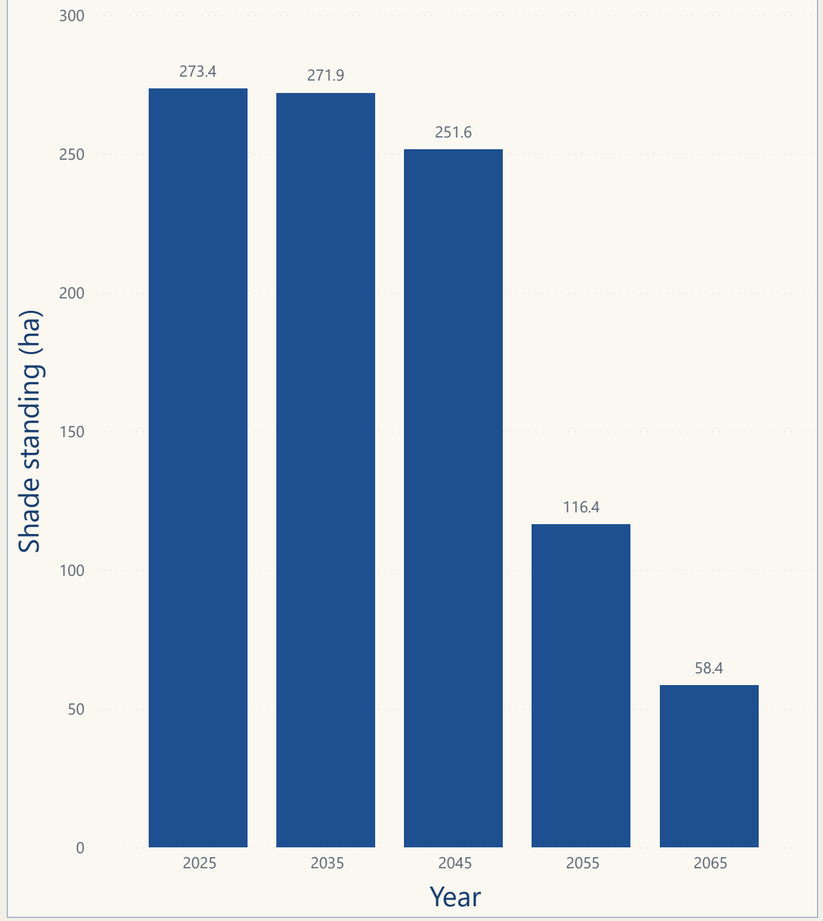

Shade standing in the year picked, ha

273.4

Share of 2025 shade ending by 2045

8.0%

Shade standing at each decade, ha

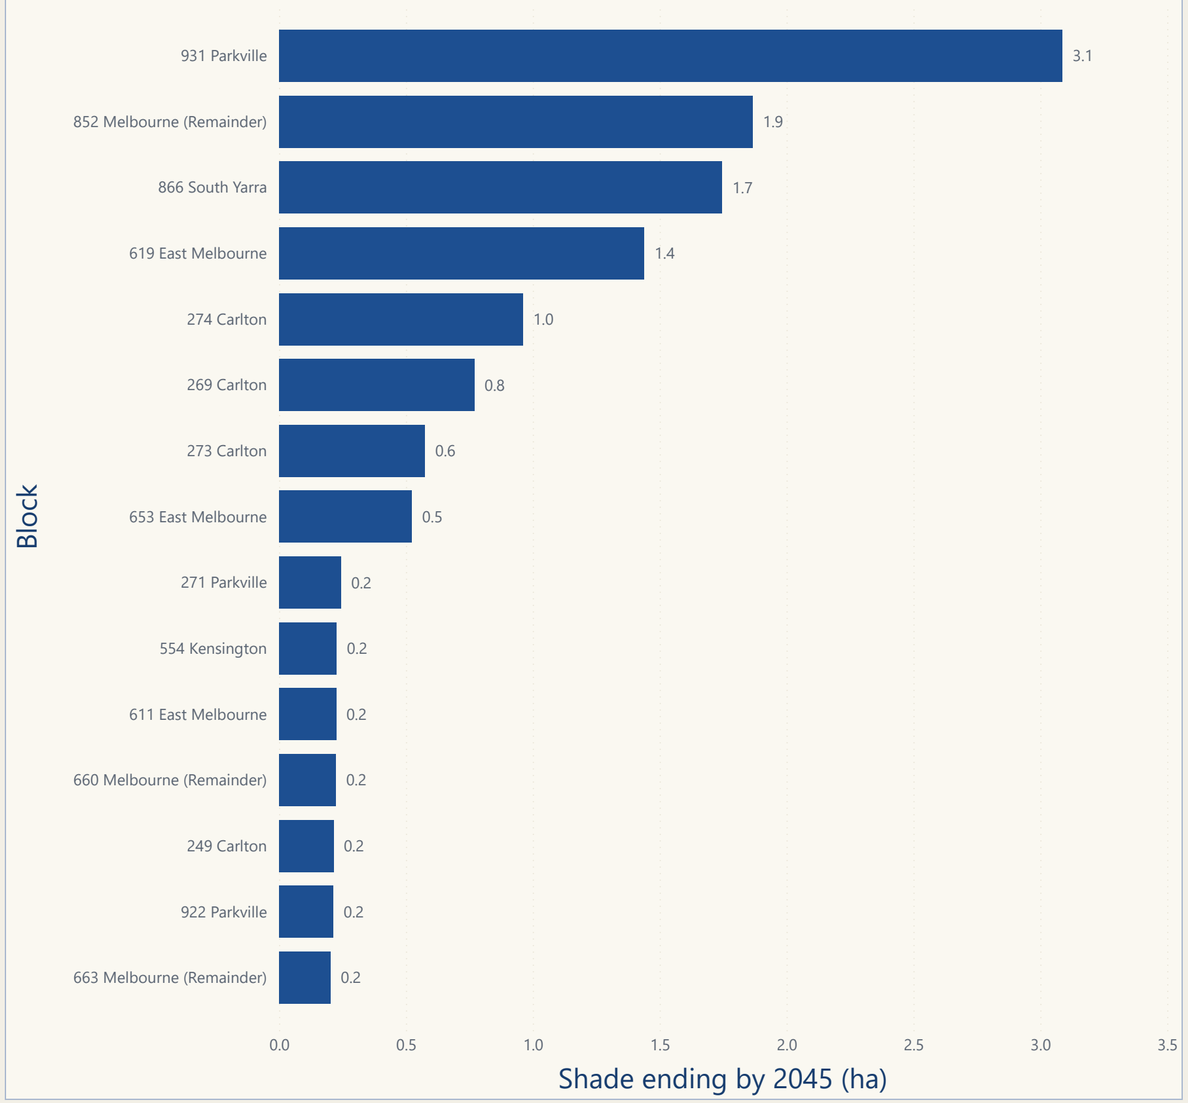

Trees, 2021 tree canopies, CLUE blocks and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Blocks and streets keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). Each tree gone by the top of its useful life band, counted from 2025; not assessed trees counted as standing; replacements not counted.

THE BLOCKS THAT LOSE MOST SHADE BY 2045

Shade on trees whose useful life ends by 2045, by census block (keyed by block_id in Plotlay).

The 15 blocks losing most shade by 2045, ha

Blocks, most shade ending by 2045 first

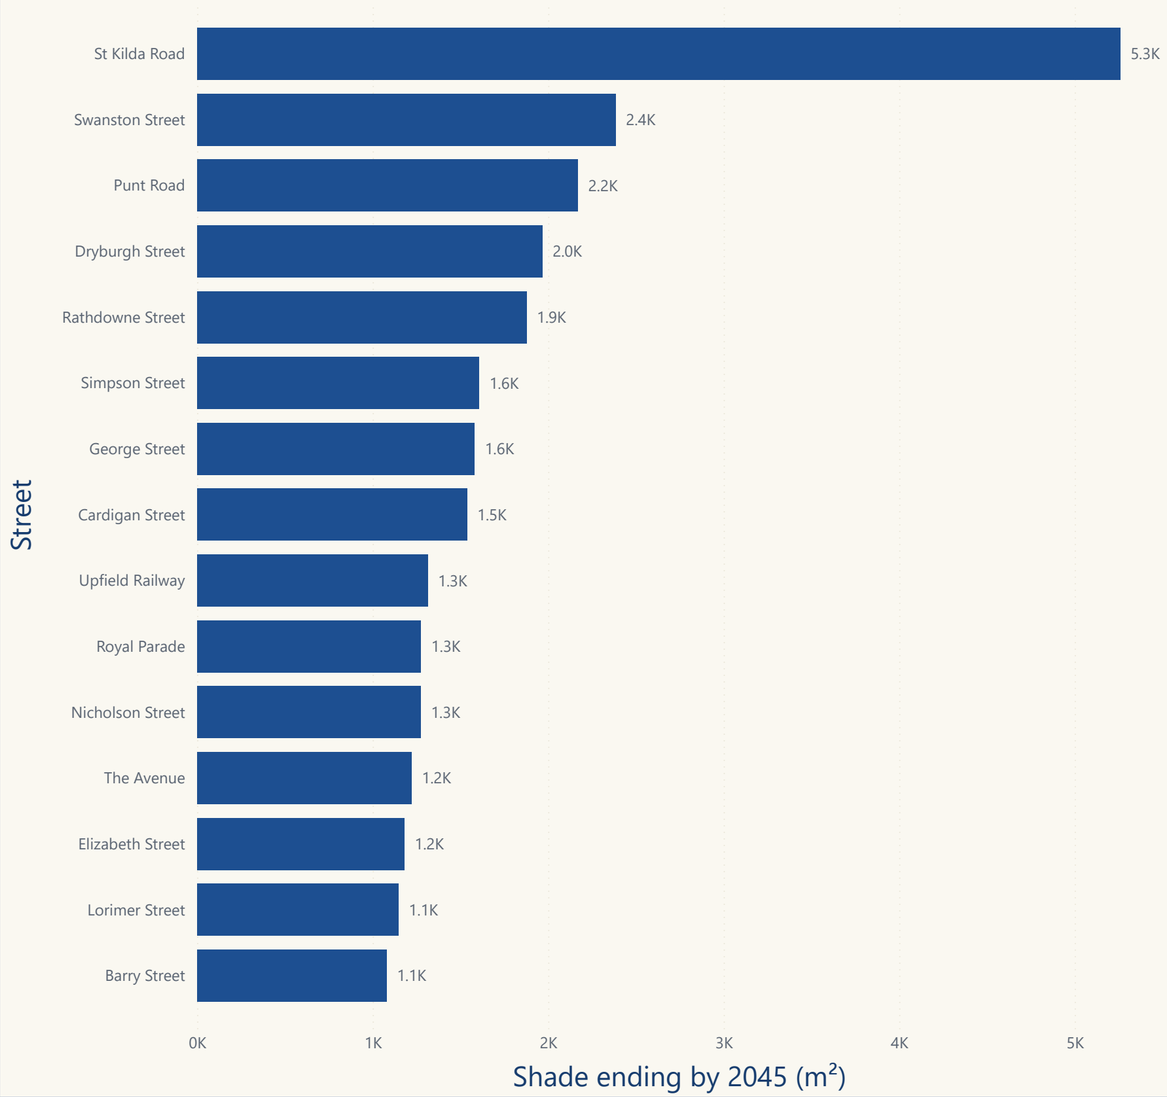

Block	Area	Shade now (m²)	Ending by 2045 (m²)	% ending by 2045	Trees ending by 2045
931	Parkville	437,455	30,871	7.1	1,428
852	Melbourne (Remainder)	232,371	18,659	8.0	145
866	South Yarra	129,440	17,459	13.5	188
619	East Melbourne	127,233	14,391	11.3	121
274	Carlton	102,944	9,611	9.3	171
269	Carlton	44,417	7,690	17.3	45
273	Carlton	14,041	5,746	40.9	59
653	East Melbourne	29,767	5,234	17.6	32
271	Parkville	14,512	2,436	16.8	20
554	Kensington	20,398	2,269	11.1	186
611	East Melbourne	10,004	2,245	22.4	25
660	Melbourne (Remainder)	6,090	2,236	36.7	13
249	Carlton	42,208	2,141	5.1	17
922	Parkville	14,477	2,136	14.8	24
663	Melbourne (Remainder)	37,827	2,023	5.3	53
1108	Docklands	20,984	1,995	9.5	173
649	East Melbourne	6,913	1,759	25.4	11
863	Melbourne (Remainder)	7,448	1,601	21.5	16
92	West Melbourne (Residential)	30,704	1,395	4.5	20
605	East Melbourne	2,946	1,382	46.9	15
850	Melbourne (Remainder)	42,652	1,276	3.0	13
1110	Docklands	11,743	1,148	9.8	78
760	Melbourne (Remainder)	7,236	1,125	15.5	10
519	Kensington	21,498	1,103	5.1	26
222	Carlton	6,007	1,047	17.4	11
570	Kensington	6,719	1,047	15.6	22
304	North Melbourne	1,967	1,017	51.7	8
661	East Melbourne	14,389	999	6.9	19
307	North Melbourne	1,780	969	54.4	7
131	Docklands	2,541	933	36.7	10
219	Carlton	2,266	908	40.1	13
563	Kensington	4,602	904	19.6	32
928	Parkville	34,659	865	2.5	30
520	Kensington	7,176	818	11.4	39
2525	Kensington	4,693	794	16.9	8
266	Carlton	2,560	779	30.4	8
1005	West Melbourne (Industrial)	13,140	761	5.8	57
616	East Melbourne	2,915	754	25.9	5

Trees, 2021 tree canopies, CLUE blocks and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Blocks and streets keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). Each tree gone by the top of its useful life band, counted from 2025; not assessed trees counted as standing; replacements not counted.

THE STREETS

Road corridor segments holding a council tree, keyed by seg_id in Plotlay, added up by street name.

The 15 streets losing most street-tree shade by 2045, m²

Segments, most shade ending by 2045 first

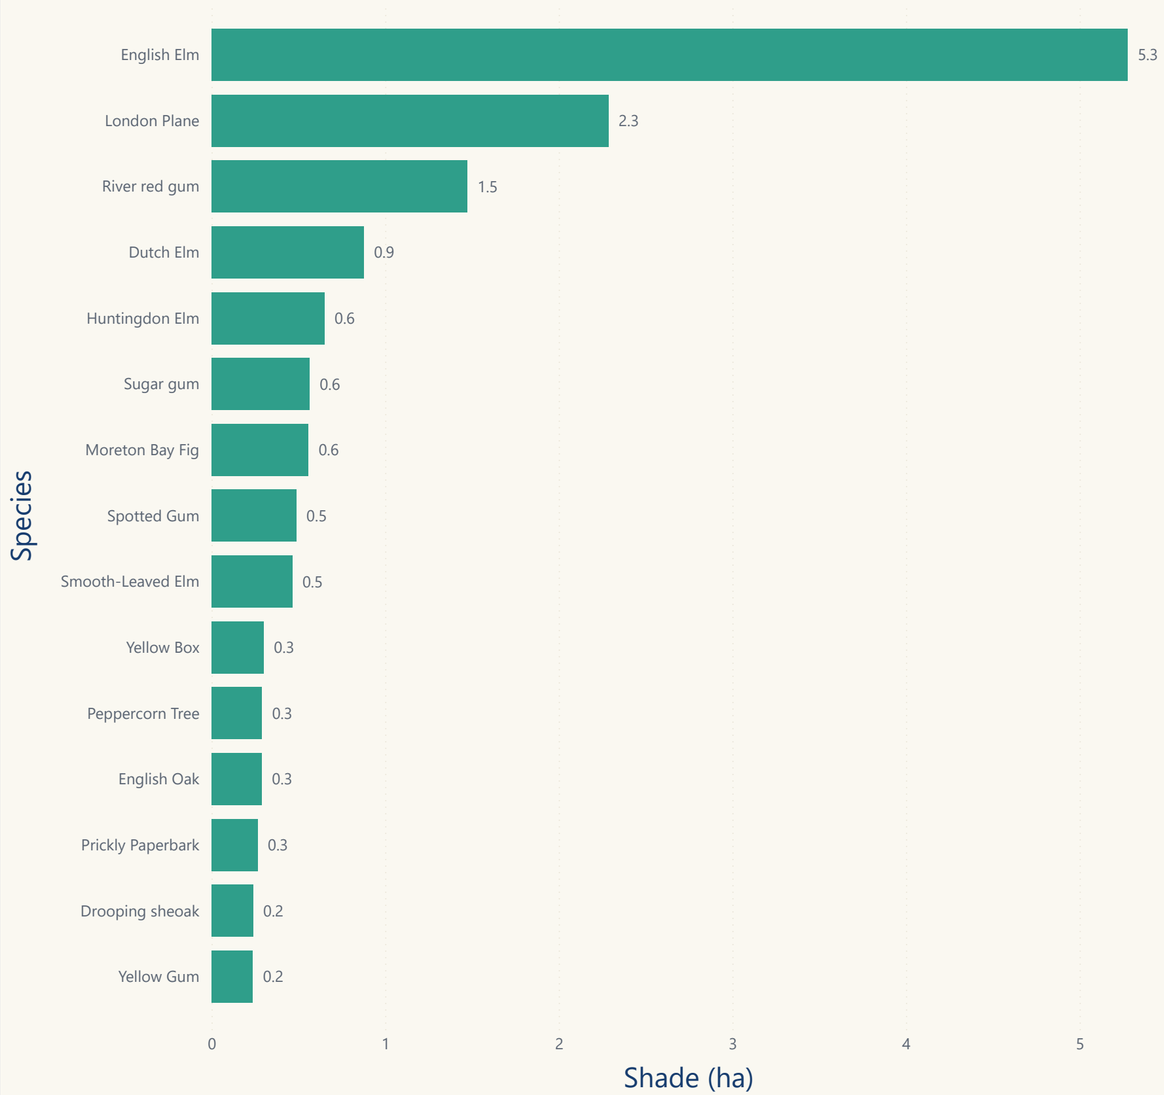

Segment	Shade now (m²)	Ending by 2045 (m²)	% ending by 2045
Swanston Street between Elgin Street and College Crescent	5,605	2,117	37.8
Punt Road between Hoddle Bridge and Olympic Boulevard	2,642	2,026	76.7
St Kilda Road between Domain Road and Bromby Street	2,017	1,601	79.4
Upfield Railway	6,180	1,280	20.7
St Kilda Road between Armadale Street and Commercial Road	6,782	1,125	16.6
Barry Street between Leicester Street and Pelham Street	1,376	1,079	78.4
Cardigan Street between Victoria Street and Queensberry Street	1,806	1,014	56.1
Nicholson Street between Spring Street and Albert Street	1,311	1,000	76.3
George Street between Hoddle Street and Simpson Street	2,344	980	41.8
Dryburgh Street between Canning Street and Erskine Street	946	914	96.6
Smithfield Road between Epsom Road and Gatehouse Drive	1,950	868	44.5
Rankins Road between Smith Street and Robertson Street	2,721	828	30.4
Rathdowne Street between Faraday Street and Elgin Street	1,184	827	69.8
Dryburgh Street between Erskine Street and Brougham Street	915	775	84.7
Siddeley Street between Spencer Street and Wurundjeri Way	2,004	763	38.1
Cemetery Road East between College Crescent and Lygon Street	3,015	731	24.2
Princes Park Drive between Cemetery Road West and MacPherson Street	9,682	707	7.3
Shiel Street between Dryburgh Street and Canning Street	6,484	706	10.9
Wellington Parade South between Wellington Crescent and Flinders Street	3,904	704	18.0
St Andrews Place between Lansdowne Street and MacArthur Street	3,316	700	21.1
The Avenue between Leonard Street and MacArthur Road	2,317	667	28.8
Hobsons Road between Kensington Road and Stock Bridge	1,120	653	58.3
Elizabeth Street between Victoria Street and Queensberry Street	3,993	616	15.4
Alexandra Avenue between Swan Street Bridge and Anderson Street	8,138	601	7.4
Gipps Street between Powlett Street and Clarendon Street	1,704	595	34.9
St Kilda Road between Coventry Street and Dorcas Street	1,748	587	33.6
Lorimer Street between West Gate Bridge and Todd Road	14,909	531	3.6
Clifton Hill Railway	1,495	525	35.1
Rathdowne Street between Carlton Street and Faraday Street	1,132	520	45.9
George Street between Simpson Street and Powlett Street	2,271	514	22.6
King Street between Collins Street and Little Collins Street	1,193	494	41.4
Cemetery Road West between Royal Parade and College Crescent	2,731	491	18.0
Collins Street between Exhibition Street and Russell Street	3,087	475	15.4
College Crescent between Swanston Street and Princes Park Drive	3,134	463	14.8
Abbotsford Street between Wood Street and Canning Street	692	448	64.8
Royal Parade between Ievers Street and Walker Street	6,244	438	7.0
Story Street between Benjamin Street and Fitzgibbon Street	1,524	422	27.7
Gisborne Street between Cathedral Place and Albert Street	1,445	415	28.7

Trees, 2021 tree canopies, CLUE blocks and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Blocks and streets keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). Each tree gone by the top of its useful life band, counted from 2025; not assessed trees counted as standing; replacements not counted.

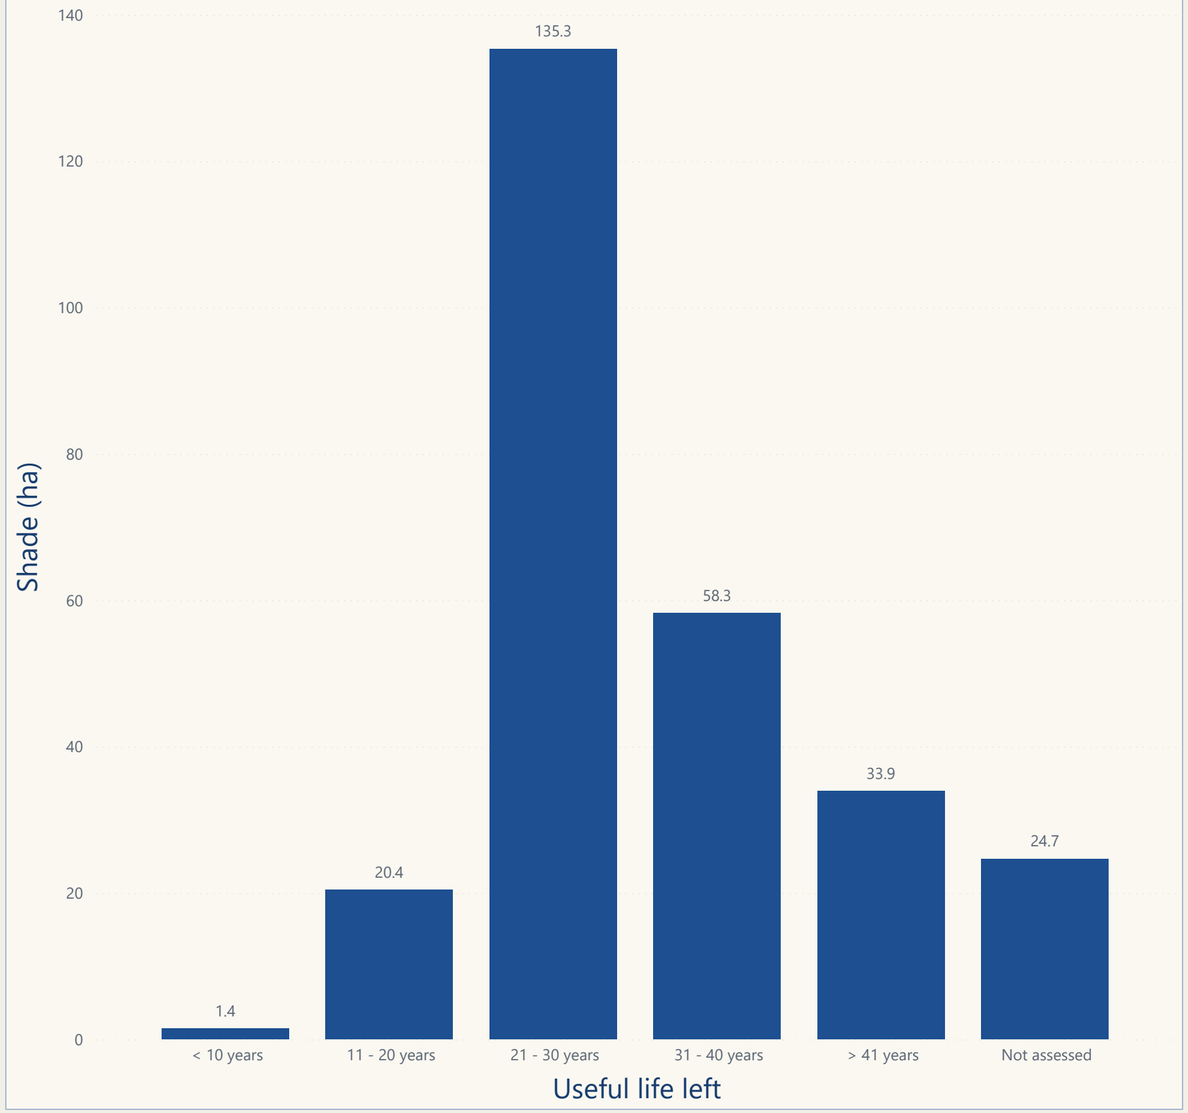

WHICH TREES

Shade by species and by useful life band. Elms carry most of the shade that ends by 2045.

The 15 species with most shade ending by 2045, ha

Shade by useful life left, ha

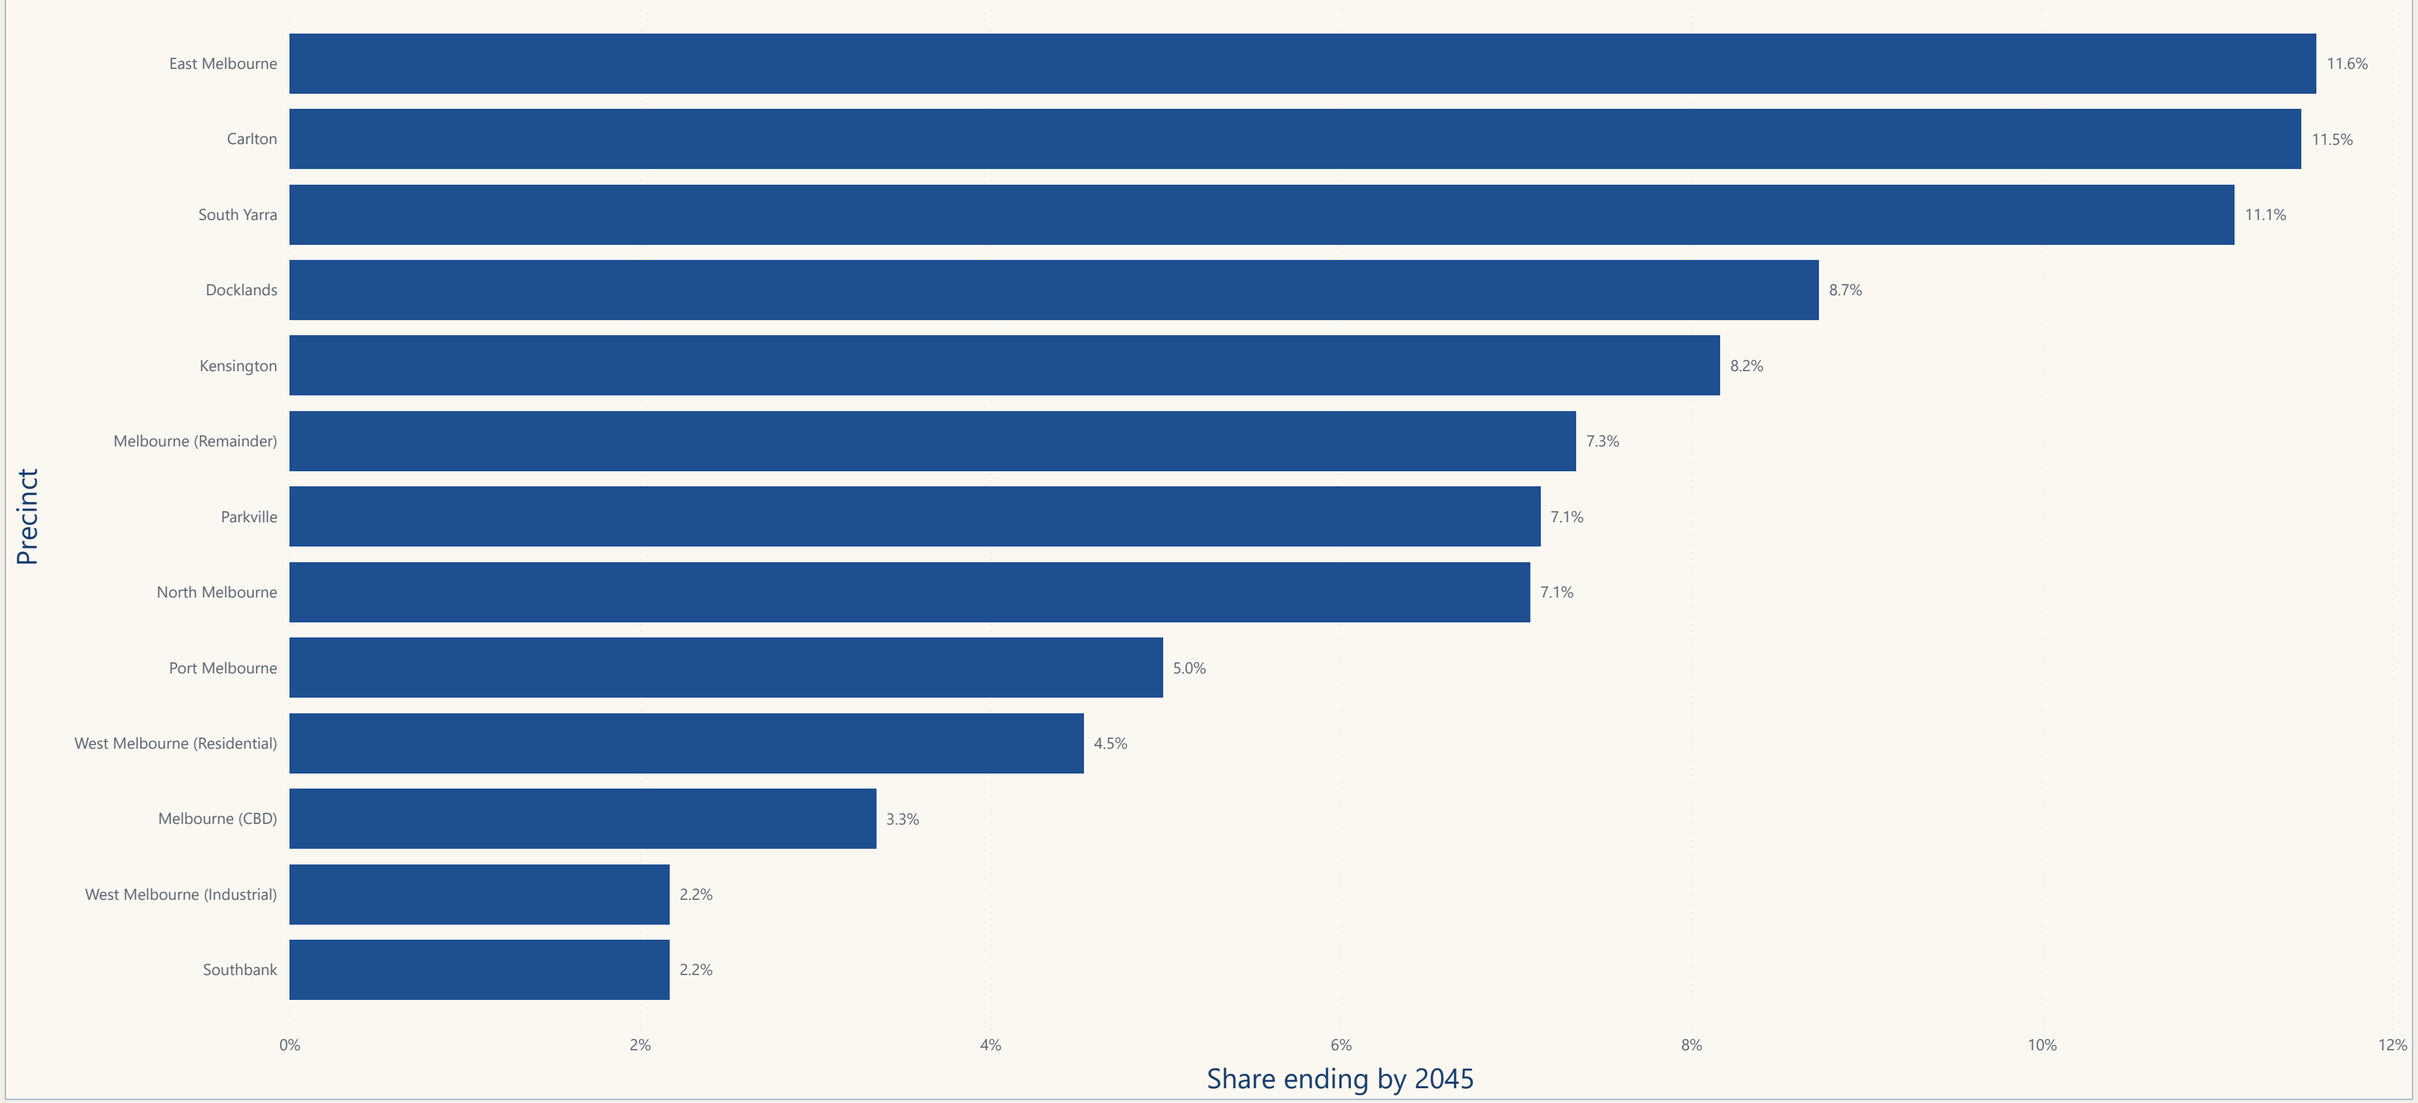

Trees, 2021 tree canopies, CLUE blocks and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Blocks and streets keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). Each tree gone by the top of its useful life band, counted from 2025; not assessed trees counted as standing; replacements not counted.

THE PRECINCTS

The 13 census small areas, with the blocks rolled up into them in Plotlay.

Share of shade ending by 2045, by precinct

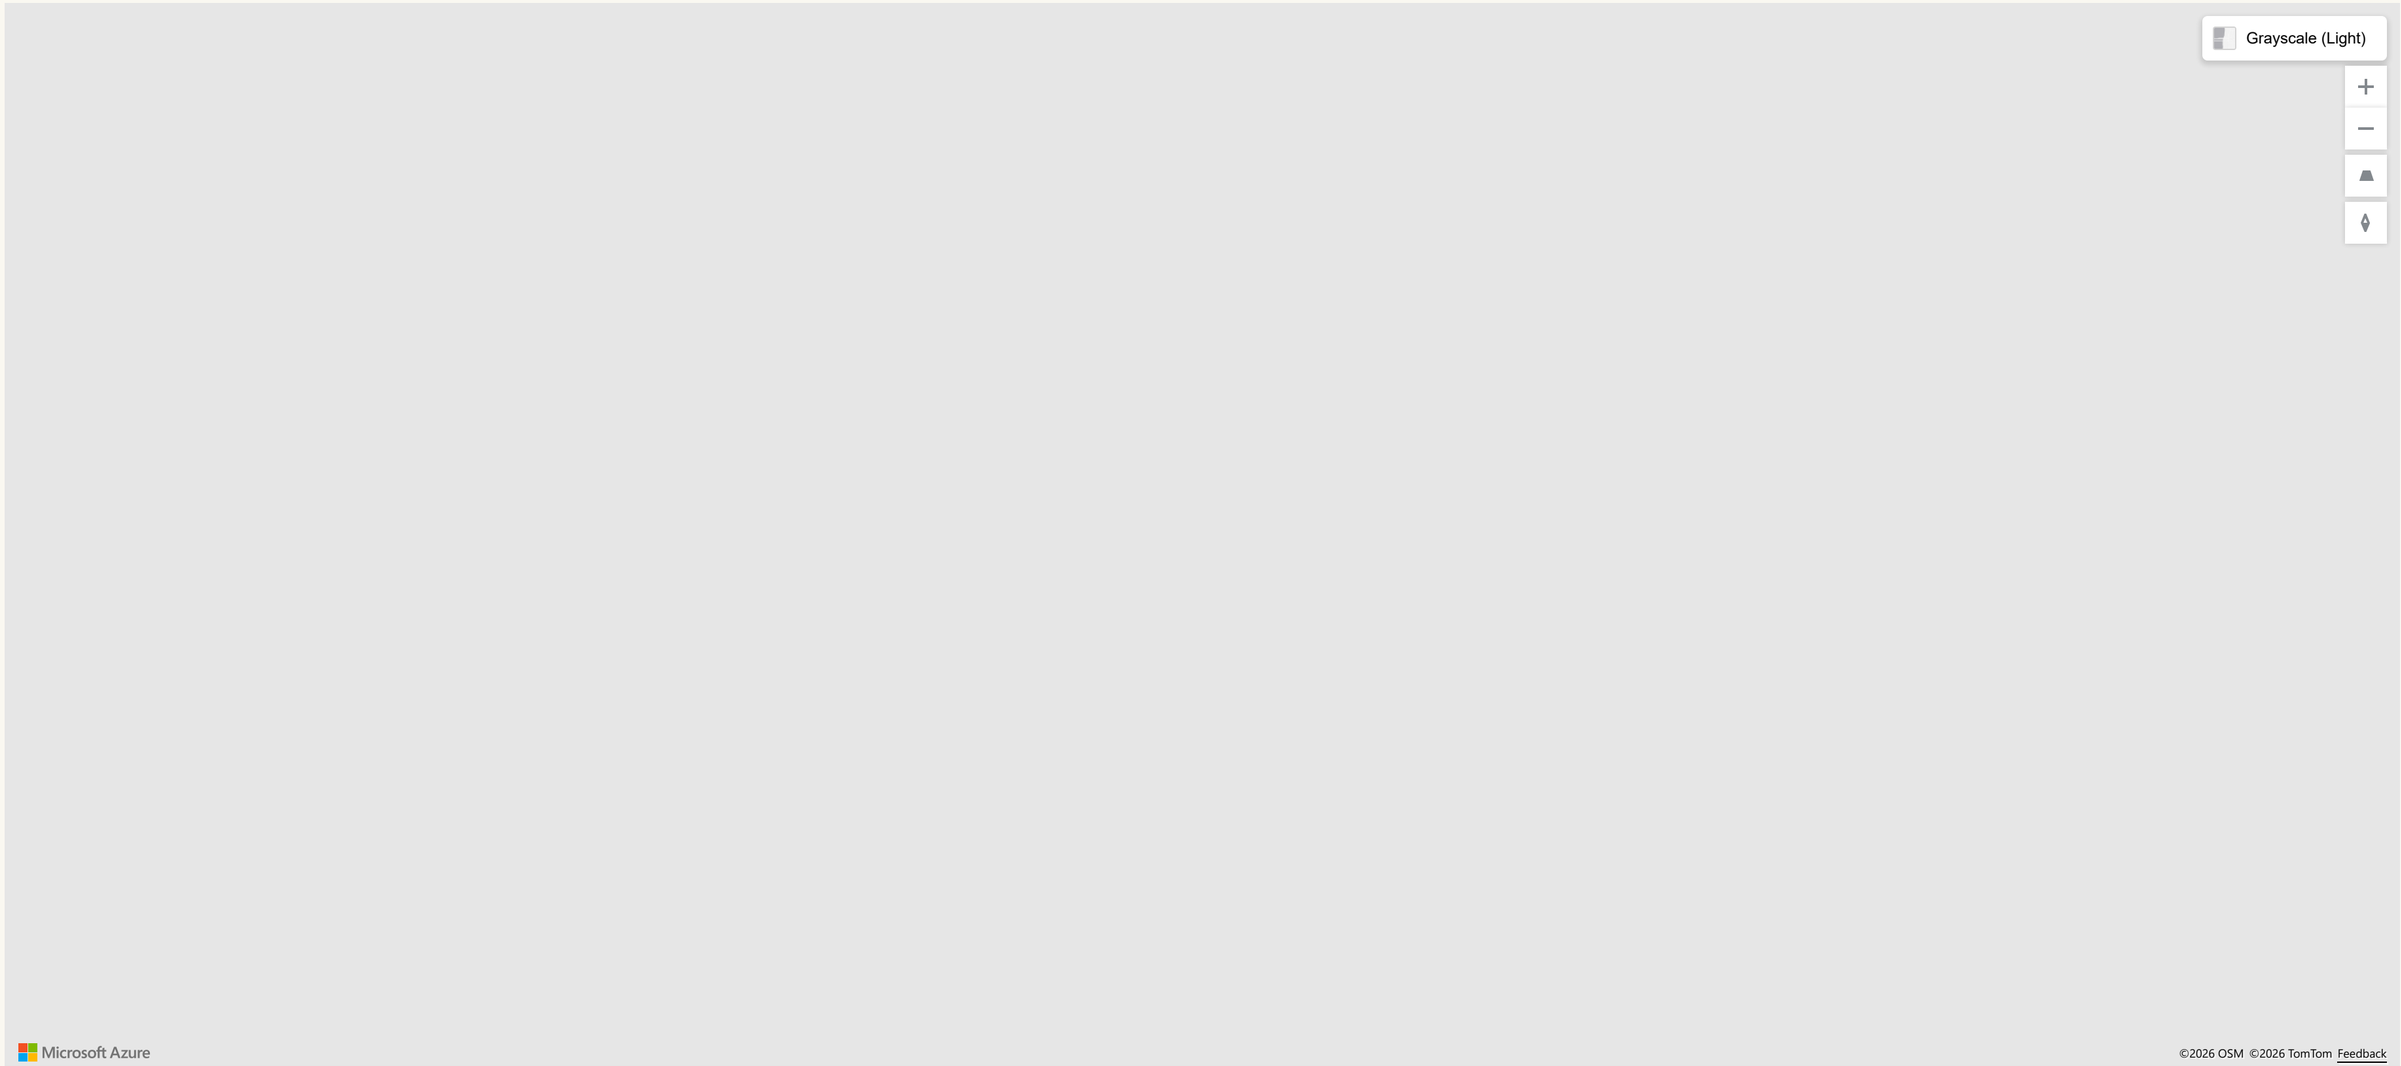

Trees, 2021 tree canopies, CLUE blocks and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Blocks and streets keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). Each tree gone by the top of its useful life band, counted from 2025; not assessed trees counted as standing; replacements not counted.

THE TREES THAT GO FIRST

Azure Maps on a light grey street map: each council tree whose useful life ends by 2045, coloured by its band. Add data/geometry/blocks.geojson as a reference layer (Format visual, Reference layer) for the block outlines.

Council trees whose useful life ends by 2045

Useful life left ● < 10 years ● 11 - 20 years

Trees, 2021 tree canopies, CLUE blocks and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Blocks and streets keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). Each tree gone by the top of its useful life band, counted from 2025; not assessed trees counted as standing; replacements not counted.